

CHC33015 CERTIFICATE III in INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (AGEING)

INCLUDES 120 HOURS WORK EXPERIENCE AND
LANGUAGE, LITERACY AND NUMERACY SUPPORT (CAVSS)

Culturally and Linguistically Diverse aged 15 – 64 Years¹ and
Young People Aged Between 15-24 Years²

For those interested in working in aged care

The CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) is a nationally recognised qualification. You will learn:

- To support people living with dementia
- To deliver care with a palliative approach
- To practise infection control
- Medical terminology
- To support people according to their care plan
- To develop manual handling skills
- Activities and skills to support daily living needs
- To recognise healthy bodies

The course is provided face-to-face with literacy, language and numeracy support to help you achieve your qualification.

Next Course: Monday, 27 June – Friday, 14 October 2016

Information 9 and 10 June 2016. Please call, email or register online to book an interview. A place will be

Sessions: confirmed following the outcome of the interview.

Details: 9am – 3.30pm, Monday – Thursday. 823 Wellington Street, West Perth (opposite Water Town).

¹ CaLD - Apply direct to Centacare. ² Youth, (aged 15-17) must be referred by Participation Program Broker.
(Please see our website for course fees and payment plans.)

APPLY NOW

☎ (08) 9482 7000

✉ training@centacarewa.com.au

🌐 www.centacarewa.com.au/ourcourses

FutureSkillsWA
Training for tomorrow's opportunities